

ED0011DON - Attendance

Introduction

This policy has been written with regard to Working Together to Improve School Attendance, the Children Missing Education statutory guidance and the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014. Esland Doncaster School recognises that many pupils may have experienced disrupted education or difficulties in previous settings, including social, emotional, medical and environmental factors that can affect attendance. Attendance is a key indicator of pupils' sense of safety, belonging and inclusion. The school is committed to creating a calm, supportive and inclusive environment where pupils feel able and motivated to attend regularly and engage meaningfully in learning.

Principles & Aims

- Promote regular attendance and punctuality through inclusive, whole-school practice.
- Maintain accurate attendance registers in line with statutory requirements.
- Identify barriers to attendance early and provide timely, proportionate support.
- Work collaboratively with parents/carers, placing Local Authorities, social workers and relevant agencies.
- Treat attendance as a safeguarding priority and part of the school's wider pastoral systems.

Attendance and SEND/EHCP Pupils

Attendance arrangements for pupils with SEND and/or Education, Health and Care Plans (EHCPs) are individualised and aligned with agreed outcomes. The school will make reasonable adjustments in line with the Equality Act 2010 to reduce barriers to attendance.

Adjustments may include graduated start times, therapeutic integration, sensory regulation support or reintegration plans. These arrangements are regularly reviewed and recorded.

Part-Time Timetables

Any part-time timetable is exceptional, time-limited and used only where it is in the pupil's best interests. Arrangements are agreed in writing with parents/carers and the placing authority where appropriate, include clear review dates, and have the explicit aim of returning the pupil to full-time education as soon as possible.

Roles & Responsibilities

School Staff

Teachers are responsible for accurate completion of class registers. The School Administrator will complete first-day calling and record outcomes. Senior leaders monitor attendance data, identify patterns and oversee interventions.

Parents/Carers

Parents/carers have a legal responsibility to ensure their child attends school regularly and punctually. Any absence must be reported to the school without delay and supported with evidence where requested.

Governance

The Education Director and Headteacher are responsible for monitoring attendance levels, assessing the effectiveness of interventions, and ensuring statutory compliance. Governors will have oversight and monitor strategies to support good attendance. They provide appropriate challenge and support and monitor the impact of strategies.

Monitoring, Analysis & Review

At Doncaster Esland School, we maintain high expectations for attendance and aspire for pupils to achieve attendance of 95% or above. We acknowledge, however, that individual needs and changing circumstances may affect attendance levels, and these are considered on a case-by-case basis. Attendance is therefore monitored closely, with emerging concerns addressed promptly through supportive, proportionate interventions.

Attendance is monitored daily and reviewed weekly at operational level. Data is analysed half-terminally by senior leaders to identify trends over time, differences between cohorts and the impact of interventions.

Findings inform strategic planning and are reported to governance. Where attendance approaches or falls below 90%, concerns will be discussed with the relevant Education Welfare Service and the placing Local Authority as appropriate.

Governors provide support and challenge via regular monitoring.

Attendance & Safeguarding

Poor or deteriorating attendance is treated as a potential safeguarding indicator and considered alongside behaviour, welfare and mental health information. Unexplained absence triggers first-day calling and escalation in line with safeguarding procedures.

Registration & Record Keeping

Poor or deteriorating attendance is treated as a potential safeguarding indicator and considered alongside behaviour, welfare and mental health information. Unexplained absence triggers first-day calling and escalation in line with safeguarding procedures.

Pupil & Family Voice

The school actively seeks pupil and family views to understand barriers to attendance. Where appropriate, pupil voice informs support planning and review meetings. Families are engaged early and collaboratively before formal escalation wherever possible.

Absence Reporting

Parents/carers must telephone the school by 9:00am on the first day of absence and on each subsequent day unless otherwise agreed. From Day 4 of illness-related absence, medical evidence may be requested. Where a pupil accumulates 15 school days of illness absence within an academic year, a review meeting will be arranged with parents/carers and relevant professionals.

Term-time Leave

Parents/carers do not have an automatic right to term-time leave. Requests must be made in writing in advance and will only be authorised in exceptional circumstances. Failure to return a pupil to school on the agreed date may result in the pupil being reported as a Child Missing Education to the placing authority. Amendments to regulations make clear that Headteachers may only authorise term-time leave in exceptional circumstances. Holidays during term time disrupt learning and negatively impact progress. The school year consists of 190 days, leaving 175 days for family holidays.

Child Missing Education

Esland Doncaster School will follow statutory Child Missing Education procedures. Any unexplained or prolonged absence will be treated as a safeguarding concern. The school will notify the placing Local Authority when a pupil is removed from roll, in line with statutory guidance and local protocols.
